CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY
ORAL ORDER

2 03-12-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the Central Armed Police Forces.

2. Aggrieved by rejection and not being sent for the next stage of selection on the ground of deficiency in chest expansion during the physical standard test, the petitioner has preferred the instant application.

3. Referring to Annexure-P/5, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in the physical test conducted on 21.8.2025, his height was held to be deficient measuring at 169.3 cm, however, the other requirements including measurement of expanded chest was held to be normal.

4. It is submitted that on a representation having been filed, another physical test was conducted on the next day on 22.8.2025 when the petitioner's height was measured to be 170.1 cm, however, now the measurement of his expanded chest was found to be deficient at 90.8 cm.

5. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner's case is covered by other similar matters including that of this Court as also the Delhi High Court. If he is not permitted to participate in the medical examination and document verification, irreparable injury will be caused.

Reliance is placed on order dated 18.9.2025 passed in C.W.J.C. no. 14751 of 2025 (Akhlaque Ahmad vs. The Union of India & Ors.).

6. In view of the facts and circumstances, it is directed that the respondents will permit the petitioner to participate in the medical examination and document verification, however, such participation by the petitioner will not confer any right on him.

7. Any appointments made in the meantime shall be subject to the result of this writ application.

8. Let this order be communicated by learned counsel appearing for the C.R.P.F. to the authority concerned for its due compliance.

9. In addition to the above, let the order be communicated to the Inspector General of Police, Central Reserve Police Force (respondent no.4) through fax.

10. Put up this case on 6.1.2026.
